

PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT

THIS PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT is made on 1st March 2015, for the next two years, by and between the following associations:

- AISES Young (Accademia Internazionale per lo Sviluppo Economico e Sociale Young), European network of young thinkers based in Rome, founded in 2012; it aims at studying and reflecting upon European and national institutions, economy, finance, public policy and global issues. Its action is encouraged by AISES, an international non-profit and independent think tank.
- SUFFESA (Strathmore University Finance and Financial Economics Student Association), aims at enhancing members' campus experience by giving them an avenue to connect with industry practitioners, develop a practical understanding of developments in the field of finance and economics through talks and discussions, give back to society as well as develop bonds and friendships amongst each other.

THE NAME OF THE PARTNERSHIP is
"International Dialogue between AISES Young and SUFFESA".

THE PURPOSE OF THE PARTNERSHIP is to hold at least two meetings per year, one in Rome and one in Nairobi, and to write joint academic papers.

Members of both associations will participate in each activity.

The meetings will last one week and they will focus on a specific global issue.

At the end of the period, a policy resolution will be presented to a public audience.
